Property Description

Just 75 minutes from the international airport, this wellness retreat is a rare investment opportunity that promises both high returns and exceptional growth potential. Set on 5 acres of lush, landscaped grounds with mature trees and serene gardens, and just minutes from the beach, this property offers a tropical paradise that is fully booked through 2025, with a fast-filling calendar for 2026. The business model caters to groups and turnkey operations are designed to make it possible for leaders to arrive with nothing but their passion for teaching and connecting. This fully supported experience fosters repeat business year after year. Accommodating up to 48 guests, the retreat offers a range of thoughtfully crafted spaces and accommodation options. A private residence adds the potential for extra rental income, office space, or future expansion. Purpose-built for wellness, the property includes two studios, ceremonial grounds, and a profitable treatment spa.
