Property Description

An exceptional opportunity to own one of the last active beachfront concession lots in Tamarindo. This prime 605 square meter parcel offers direct access to the sand and uninterrupted oceanfront positioning in one of Costa Rica's most sought-after coastal destinations. The lot comes with a water meter already installed and allows construction of up to three floors, providing excellent potential for a luxury beachfront residence or boutique investment project. With its flat, usable layout and unbeatable location, this property presents a rare chance to build directly on the beach in a fully established town. Tamarindo is known for its vibrant yet relaxed lifestyle, blending natural beauty with modern convenience. The community offers an international atmosphere, excellent dining, boutique shopping, surf culture, and a wide range of services including medical facilities, schools, and professional offices.
