Property Description

This jungle and beach home just came on the market in Costa Rica real estate. The property is in a small, gated community with only 18 homes. Walking distance to the beach and surrounded by jungle. The community has lots of almond trees that attract scarlet macaws. There are also lots of tropical plants and palms that make you feel like you are in the Costa Rican jungle. In the communal area, there is a pool surrounded by palms and bright tropical plants. Pueblo Escondido translates to “hidden town” and that is exactly what it feels like in this community. The area is known as Tarcoles and is a charming Costa Rican beach town with a true Pura Vida lifestyle. This jungle and beach home is well-built and nicely detailed. It has two bedrooms and one bathroom, a kitchen and living area, and a great front porch. When you are sitting on the porch you can hear and see all sorts of birds and wildlife in the gardens.
