Property Description

Mono Salvaje or Savage Monkey is a 3.3 hectare (8.1 acres) parcel of land with a cleared off section that has an amazing view of the ocean and Matapalo in the Osa peninsula. Yes the monkeys frequent here often hence the name....The property is up at about 80 meters (260 feet) above sea level which gives you an very nice view of the tip of the peninsula. The property is only a short 3 minute drive from the beach in Playa Pilon and its world class surf spots. There are two major surf points within 5 minutes, Pilon main point and Leftovers point which offer two very different types of surf. Leftovers is for beginners to intermediate surfers where Pilon Main Point is for Advanced surfers. Also just 20 minutes away is the surfing world mecca of Pavones Point with its extremely long left hand wave. If surfing is not your thing, the area boasts some of the best big game fishing in the entire world.
