Property Description

This exceptional new luxury residence, set for completion summer and 2026, is perched on the prestigious South Ridge of Playa Flamingo and offers the rare combination of beautiful ocean, beach, and marina views paired with true privacy—something that many ocean-view homes on the ridge simply do not have. Mature trees naturally frame the sweeping Pacific panorama, allowing the home to embrace both breathtaking scenery and peaceful seclusion. With a total of six full master suites, this property delivers unmatched versatility and comfort: four master suites are located within the main home, all of which feature dramatic ocean views, and two additional full master casitas sit privately on the ground level, each with its own bathroom and separate entrance. This layout is ideal for hosting large groups, perfect for multiple families vacationing together, and extremely attractive for luxury rental investors seeking strong income potential.
