Property Description

Discover the full potential of this 2,383 m² corner lot situated directly on the primary road in Playa del Coco, one of Costa Rica's most desirable and rapidly growing beach towns. With extensive road frontage and a strategic location just outside the town center, this property offers excellent visibility and access while retaining privacy, perfect for a residential development. This level, build-ready lot is part of the Maritime Zone with a fully approved residential concession, making it ideal for a private estate, multi-home project, or vacation residences. While located on a main thoroughfare, the area maintains a more relaxed feel just beyond the town's commercial core. All concession documents are clean, current, and ready for transfer, ensuring a smooth and secure transaction for the buyer. Priced to sell, this is a rare opportunity to invest in prime coastal real estate with excellent long-term value.
