Property Description

Close-In Uvita Ocean View Homes and apartments Located in the hills above Uvita, this exclusive ocean-view property offers a rare combination of convenience, privacy, and stunning coastal vistas. Just minutes from the town center and the world-famous Marino Ballena National Park, the home provides easy access to beaches, restaurants, shopping, and modern services while maintaining the tranquility of mountain living. The 3,060 m² titled property features three residences, two homes, and 1 apartment, making it ideal for multi-generational living, hosting friends and family, or generating rental income through long- or short-term stays. The elevated setting provides views of the Pacific Ocean and surrounding mountains, complemented by refreshing breezes and lush tropical surroundings. Uvita has become one of Costa Rica's most sought-after destinations for both lifestyle and investment, known for its international schools, thriving expat community, and growing demand for vacation rentals.
