Property Description

A listing like you (or us) have NEVER seen before – a 23 hectare permaculture farm stocked with around 80 animals and dozens of species of fruit and vegetables, tucked away 600m (2000 feet) above the surrounding countryside, with refreshing mountain breezes, BILLION DOLLAR views, a two-star ECOLOGICAL BLUE FLAG accreditation and 17 hectares of primary (old growth) jungle...but also connected to power, internet, water and with a strong call phone signal, sitting within a shouting distance of a local village and just a few kilometres' drive away from the Pan-American Highway (National Route 2) which is speckled with towns and all the services and amenities you will ever need...WOW! As you turn off the Pan-American Highway to drive towards the farm entrance, a winding unpaved access road climbs through the mountains and jungles presenting ever-changing views of the lush forests and of the flatlands and ocean below.
