Property Description

At 2,500 feet above sea level in the harmonious mountain village of Serenity Gardens, this 2.6-acre sanctuary offers the ideal year-round climate – warm but never hot, fresh but never cold – creating the perfect setting for abundant food production and comfortable living. The main house blends function with character, featuring 3 bedrooms and 2 full bathrooms, including a semi-outdoor bath that invites you to connect with nature. Elevated countertops make the kitchen especially comfortable for taller residents, while all of the furniture is custom-made from local hardwoods, bringing warmth and craftsmanship into every room. A guest casita offers a studio layout with a king bed, custom pull-out queen, full bathroom, and outdoor shower – perfect for visiting family, friends, or creative projects. A greenhouse/carport adds space for gardening, vehicles, and other ventures. The land itself is extraordinary.
