Property Description

This condominium is located in the heart of Tamarindo downtown, only a seven minute walk to the white sands and clear water beach. This is a gated community with security and two common pool areas and bbq ranchos as well. The condo is in a second story and comes furnished as well as with new coat of paint. The construction is all concrete and great quality. You are walking distance to everything the town of Tamarindo has to offer , including water sports , shopping, dining , and night life. This is a great opportunity to have a home downtown as well as receive good ROI on the unit because of the location and pricing as well.
