Property Description

Nestled just a half-mile from the stunning, secluded Playa Chaman, this 2-bedroom home offers a rare blend of quality and location. Constructed with high-grade block and cutting-edge materials for exceptional sound and temperature control, this property is ideal for those seeking comfort and tranquility in one of Costa Rica's most sought-after spots. Located in a peaceful, tight-knit neighborhood with no through streets, the home is a short stroll from Uvita's famous Whale Tail and the breathtaking Marino Ballena National Park. Enjoy the sights of scarlet macaws soaring overhead and the convenience of nearby restaurants, hotels, stores, and farmers markets. This property also presents a lucrative investment opportunity. With Uvita experiencing some of the highest growth in the country, local data shows strong, stable returns for rental properties. The home's prime location and charm make it easy to generate substantial income.
