Property Description

A Living Canvas: An Artist-Designed Sanctuary Unlike Any Other in Costa Rica Prepare to be captivated by a property that transcends the definition of a home – a true work of art sculpted by a visionary artist. Unlike anything you've encountered in this region of Costa Rica, this exceptional villa is a testament to a lifetime of experience building in harmony with the jungle and tropical environment. Conceived not as a market offering but as a personal sanctuary, every detail reflects the owner's unique vision and artistic sensibility. Beyond its aesthetic allure, this two-story residence boasts a solid concrete foundation on the first floor, providing enduring strength, while the lightweight second story offers a distinctive character enhanced by the superficial yet impactful use of wood. This design captures the soul of an authentic wooden house without compromising structural integrity.
