Property Description

Located on a dead end road between Pacifico Dulce Road and Don Roger with spectacular views. No doubt with the convenience of minutes to beaches and town that this is priced below market! All due diligence has been done on this ample, multiple plantel, 3000m2 property and it is ready to go into new ownership! Lower level plantel allows for a guest house. Looking for a quieter way of a vacation home? The small but evergrowing, beach town of Uvita, Costa Rica may be just what you are looking for. Situated in the Southern Pacific of Costa Rica south of Dominical, Uvita borders Marino Ballena National Park. The beautiful golden sands and swaying palm trees feature tropical rain forest right up to the beaches. The famous whale and dolphin watching tours and sea kayaking are among the favorite activities operating out of Uvita. From Uvita, you have easy access to Cano Island for snorkeling or scuba diving.
