Property Description

Welcome to the enchanting Salamoli Farm, a property that radiates warmth and authenticity, nestled within the picturesque landscapes of Costa Rica's Puntarenas Province. This haven, located in Bahía Chal town within the Sierpe district, harmoniously blends nature and practicality, offering an expansive 225,910 square meters (56 acres) of possibilities. Perched along Highway 245 in Bahía Chal, the Salamoli Farm is a symphony of authenticity and modern comfort. Easily accessible via a public street, the property is generously equipped with electricity and cellular coverage, ensuring seamless connectivity without compromising the natural surroundings. The presence of natural springs ensures a consistent source of water, enhancing the property's allure as a self-sufficient oasis. The heart of the Salamoli Farm lies in its fusion of nature's beauty and human ingenuity. Enveloped by both primary and secondary forests, and serenaded by the whispers of nearby creeks and waterfalls, it stands as a sanctuary for the soul.
