Property Description

This seaside family compound and income-producing retreat offers a wide range of possibilities for multi-faceted use. Located on the southern Nicoya Peninsula of the Gold Coast of Guanacaste, Costa Rica, the property sits between two international airports, in an area many consider the "real" Costa Rica. The region is renowned for its friendly people, beautiful beaches, emerald mountains, and abundant wildlife. Privacy and Amenities The seaside family compound ensures privacy while providing essential amenities such as cell phone communication, television, and internet service. Though Punta Dakota is designed to be somewhat remote, the surrounding area boasts an abundance of quality restaurants, grocery stores, and activities within easy driving distance. Additionally, the property offers access to miles of unspoiled, often virtually uninhabited beaches. Property Details Size: 2.
